The KU Natural History Museum & KU TRIO Talent Search Present

BUILD YOUR FUTURE

STEM Saturday (In-Person Events)

Join us to explore natural hazards from flaming-hot heatwaves to winter storms, flooding, and tornadoes. Learn how extreme weather affects your community and look at ways to build a better future to help your family and neighbors cope with disasters. We'll engage in hands-on activities and STEM experiments.

This is open to TRIO Middle School Students. Only 35 spots available!

Must be able to commit to attending all 3 Saturdays! FREE!
