

Research Experiences for Undergraduates

Seeking Equitable Pathways to Community Disaster Resilience

Join us for an immersive research experience in community disaster resilience with a focus on social equity. Make a difference. Shape your future. Help communities thrive.

BENEFITS

- Get paid $6,000
- Includes housing on campus or stipend for off-campus living
- Meal plan

ELIGIBILITY

- Applicants must be currently enrolled in an undergraduate degree program, preferably having completed at least 2 years of college coursework or an associate degree.
- Community college students are encouraged to apply but must plan to enroll in a 4-year college after degree.
- Applicants must be U.S. citizens, U.S. nationals, or permanent residents.

SUMMER 2024

May 28 – August 9

Experience team-based interdisciplinary research. Get training for community-engaged research. Take field trips. Build skills. And have fun!

Participants will conduct research at KSU, KU or WSU.

APPLY

nsfepscor.ku.edu/reu

Questions?
Contact
Alej Martinez,
alej@ku.edu
785.864.9041

This program is part of ARISE, a major investment in Kansas by the U.S. National Science Foundation Established Program to Stimulate Competitive Research (EPSCoR).

This material is based work funded by NSF grant OIA-2148878. Any opinions, findings, conclusions, or recommendations expressed here are those of the author(s) for these projects, & do not necessarily reflect the views of NSF.